

News Flash

After 6 years of owning and operating Vacy Hall in partnership, Graham Higgins is pleased to announce that he has now taken on full ownership and management of the property and the business.

The business continues to be operated by Vacy Hall Pty Ltd and Graham is the sole shareholder and Director of that company.

Graham has had full operational management of the business since January 2009 when his former partner decided to move to Townsville.

On taking over full ownership in late September 2009 Graham said "Vacy Hall is a beautiful place that is treasured by many people and I am pleased that I can continue to develop this lovely Historic Guesthouse to its full potential.

"I love living here and it's a real treat to be able to share it with other people who are drawn to its old world charm and extremely convenient location.

Graham lives onsite in the cottage with his Basset Hound puppy, Vinnie.

Prior to buying into Vacy Hall in early 2004, Graham had a career in the Recruitment Consulting Industry when he had an executive search practice and built a number of recruitment related businesses in markets around Australia. Before his 16 years in recruitment he worked in Federal Politics and Journalism.

November 2009